Muslim Cemetery Usage Agreement

ICGA Muslim Cemetery policy, rules and procedures:

ICGA funeral director must keep a record of all burials and follow all state and local laws and regulations. ICGA strictly enforces the following policy, rules and procedure for any and all burials at its site. Unless otherwise requested, the default location for all body transportation within the Austin area is Manor Masjid located on 5110 Manor Road Austin, TX.

1. When a Muslim death occurs and the family wishes to bury the deceased in ICGA Muslim Cemetery, a grave to bury the body must be assigned from ICGA funeral director or his designated person. Please request for ICGA funeral service to make all necessary arrangements to bury the deceased. (Please call the designated representative of the ICGA Muslim Cemetery. Please see 'Contact Numbers' section.)

- In case the family of the deceased wishes to perform the Ghusul and the Janazah prayer at a site other than Manor mosque, the family is still required to provide all information listed below (item 2).

- A grave will be assigned after completing the information requested and ICGA will arrange for digging and burying of the deceased.

- Work with the cemetery representative for the time of the burial and method to cover the cost associated with this service.

- Complete any necessary paperwork as guided by the cemetery representative.

2. In order to assign a grave site, the following must be provided to ICGA funeral services by next of kin or guardian:

- Name of legal guardian and relation to the deceased

- Name of deceased

- Social Security number

- Place of birth

- Place of death

- Death certificate (or).

- Ghusul request or verification that Ghusul was performed by according to Islamic teachings.

3. After all immediate details are finalized, ICGA funeral services will assign a grave site, arrange for the grave to be dug and prepared. The family and ICGA will also arrange for the date and time for Janazah prayer.

4. Next of kin or guardians must meet in person with a cemetery representative at Manor Masjid at least one hour prior to washing of body to complete all necessary paperwork and address any necessary costs associated with burial. Alternate arrangements must be made in advance with the cemetery representative.

5. Next of kin or guardians must agree to abide by all ICGA policies and guidelines before washing of body can begin (Ghusul). The entire process of Ghusul, covering by a Kafan & Janazah prayer must be led by ICGA imam or his designate.
6. Ghusul will be performed by qualified ICGA Ghusul team members. Participation of family members is optional and should be requested in advance.
7. After Ghusul the body will be covered in a Kafan and placed into a temporary casket for transport to cemetery.
8. Salat-ul-Janazah will then be prayed on the body in the masjid. The Janazah prayer must be performed by ICGA imam or his designate. To ensure greater attendance, all efforts will be made to schedule Janazah prayer to coincide right after a regular prayer time.
9. After Salat-ul-Janazah, the deceased will be transported for burial to the ICGA Muslim Cemetery located in Dale, TX located approximately 30 miles outside of Austin.
10. Unauthorized burial at the Muslim cemetery will be dealt with swiftly. All costs associated with remedial of the unauthorized burial including attorney fees and ICGA additional charges will be billed and collected from persons responsible for the unauthorized burials.

Terms and Conditions for Burial: (All must follow. No exceptions)

1. Islamic laws govern all matters concerning the Muslim cemetery at Lytton Spring, Texas (hereinafter called The Cemetery).
2. Only Muslims subscribing to the Creed of Ahl-as-sunnah wal-jamaah are allowed to be buried in The Cemetery (hereinafter called The Deceased).
3. The Deceased and his/her custodian only have interment rights. They do not own any part of The Cemetery.
4. The Deceased will be Islamically bathed and prepared outside The Cemetery, prior to burial.
5. The funeral prayer will be prayed outside The Cemetery, prior to burial. No other prayers will be allowed.
6. The grave will be dug deeply and in accordance with the specification of the Sunnah.
7. The grave will be made a lahd, one longer side facing the Qiblah (direction of the city of Makkah in the Arabian Peninsula).
8. The Deceased's body will be buried without casket or any other encasement that separates the wrapped body from the surrounding soil.

In the name of Allah the beneficent the merciful

9. The man who lays down The Deceased's body will say: Bismillah, wa'ala millati Rasulillah (in Allah's name, and upon the religion of Allah's Messenger).
10. The Deceased body will be laid in the land on the right side, with the face to the Qiblah, and the back will be supported with bricks.
11. No pillow or the like will be placed beneath The Deceased's head in the grave, no perfumes or decorations will be sprinkled in the grave, and no other worldly possession will be buried with The Deceased.
12. Those present will pour three handful of earth in to the head end of the grave.
13. The soil over the grave will be raised no more that a hand span.
14. After the burial, Muslim will sit for a short period of time around the grave, supplicating for The Deceased quietly, and asking Allah to grant The Deceased mercy, forgiveness, and firmness of words when questioned by angels in the grave.
15. No fence will be built around the grave.
